

2021 Professional Photography Guidelines

Any professional or amateur photographer who will be bringing in professional equipment beyond a camera (i.e., light meters, screens, special lenses) and/or would like to capture the sunset must reserve time outside of our normal business hours.

There is a $50 site fee (includes photographer's admission to the flower fields) plus $10 per person admission to the flower fields for each of their clients. Advance reservations are REQUIRED.

Steps for a reservation:

1. Choose the desired date
2. Click the Photographer Site Fee button and add to cart
2. Click the Client Fee button/ enter # of clients accompanying you and add to cart
3. Go to Buy It Now and check out

We schedule evening sessions when our fields are less crowded to provide a great experience for you and our clients. Photographers and their clients may arrive to set up at 6:30 PM and can shoot from 7 PM to 8:30 PM (sunset) (mid-August).

PHOTOGRAPHY SESSION GUIDELINES:

- Print your ticket (received in your email confirmation) for your lanyard .
- Upon arrival, photographer will go to the admissions area.
- An identification badge on a lanyard will be given to the photographer upon check-in. This lanyard must be worn while in the flower fields and returned before leaving the property.
- Wristbands will be given for all clients accompanying the photographer into the fields; they do not have to be worn but must be readily available as proof of paid admission
- If you see anyone in the fields taking photos without a lanyard, please call the phone number listed on the identification badge (Wickham Farm staff will address this immediately) as we want to ensure the quality of your experience for which you have paid for.
- The session ends promptly at 8:30. The photographer and their clients must exit the fields at that time, return the ID badge to the basket near where they checked in and exit the property

Mini Sessions: Photographers must supply an assistant to meet and escort clients to the Flower field. This is about a 10-15 minute walk. Clients are expected to leave by 8:30 PM.

Pricing: 6:30pm to 8:30pm $50 site fee PLUS $10 for clients ages 3 to 79.

